Large fleet competes for honours at Fisherrow regatta

FISHERROW Yacht Club (FYC) hosted its annual Open Regatta at the weekend, seeing a large fleet of boats competing for honours over four races.

The dinghy class saw an outstanding turnout of 20 dinghies with local numbers swelled by a visiting contingent of junior sailors from North Berwick-based East Lothian Yacht Club (ELYC), as well as visitors from other Forth clubs. Comfortable winner was the experienced Paul Rigg, visiting from ELYC, with wins in all four races.

Second over the weekend was local helm Mark McClelland, followed by Calum Finlayson, a young North Berwick sailor who put in some great races over the two days.

There were six yachts enjoying three long races over the weekend.

Honours went to Fisherrow's own Commodore, David Wilkie, closely followed by Burntisland visitor Cameron Petrie, with FYC skipper Dennis Walton taking third.

The good turnout for this regatta reflects the rejuvenated interest in sailing in Musselburgh and its surrounds for which Fisherrow Yacht Club, a very welcoming club, is the nucleus.

With several club boats available for use, the club has been able to help beginners and sailors returning to the sport.

The regatta provided a spectacle for those strolling on the promenade with many spectators commenting on how lovely it was to see the bay filled with sails.

Sure to be a Classic

A LARGE entry of Classic racers from the length and breadth of Britain are due to participate in the Bob McIntyre Memorial Classic Races at East Fortune this weekend.

The Scottish Classic Racing Motorcycle Club organises the event each year to celebrate the Scottish racer who first recorded a 100mph lap at the Isle of Man TT Races.
